Terms and Conditions:

Charges & refunds:

1. By booking you agree to our charges, laid out above.
2. Fees must be paid in full before the booking commences. Your booking is not guaranteed until payment is received. If payment is delayed, your slot may be reallocated, you will be informed when this is the case.
3. Refunds are at the discretion of Bells and Whistles Behaviour Ltd. While we do our best to be flexible, if we have had to turn away a hire booking, we reserve the right to refuse a refund or rearrangement.

Animal Health:

1. Do not bring ill or potentially contagious dogs to the venue, including dogs that are known to have come in contact with contagious disease. This includes, but is not limited to; diarrhoea, vomiting, conjunctivitis or vaccinatable diseases. We reserve the right to turn away animals in poor health.
2. Bitches in season may not use our agility field due to distraction for dogs subsequently using the paddock. This does not apply to the recall or secure paddock.

Your responsibilities:

1. Dogs must not be off lead anywhere other than the hire area.
2. You must take reasonable steps to ensure the paddock hired is suitable for your dogs and any persons attending. This is particularly in regard to fencing and surrounding livestock; Bells and Whistles Behaviour Ltd. will not be held responsible for dogs escaping from hire paddocks.
3. If using the agility paddock, you must not use the agility equipment unless you have paid to do so. Please be aware we do not hire equipment to those who are new to agility due to the risk of injury to you or your dog. Agility equipment is for canine use only, any persons seen climbing on equipment or using it in an unsafe manner will be asked to leave immediately.
4. If using agility equipment, please leave it as you found it, for instance height of the dog walk and positioning of the jumps.
5. You must report damage to fencing or equipment immediately, whether caused by yourself or not.
6. You will be held liable for any damage to property or livestock, including worrying of livestock.
